

3rd EBRD & King's College London Workshop on the Economics and Politics of Migration

CALL FOR PAPERS

16-17 June 2022, London

Submission deadline: Monday, 4 April 2022

The European Bank for Reconstruction and Development and King's College London are co-organizing a workshop on the Economics and Politics of Migration. It will take place at the EBRD on 16-17 June 2022 in London.

The workshop will provide a platform for researchers and policymakers to discuss new research and to identify areas where further academic and policy-oriented work is needed. Both theoretical and empirical contributions are welcome. There will be a dedicated discussant for each paper, as well as an open floor discussion. The workshop features keynote speeches by:

- Catia Batista (Nova School of Business and Economics)
- Elias Papaioannou (London Business School)

The event will be held in person. There is no registration fee. Accommodation expenses will be covered for speakers and discussants. The organisers are not able to cover travel costs. An invitation-only conference dinner will be hosted on 16 June 2022.

To submit a paper (full papers only) please send an email to Cevat Giray Aksoy at cevat.aksoy@kcl.ac.uk. In the subject header please add "Submission: Migration Workshop". In the case of multiple-authored papers, please indicate who will present the paper. The authors will be notified about acceptance by Friday, 22 April 2022.
